

Dr Nigel Kendall, Prifysgol Nottingham University

Mae gan Dr Nigel Kendall gefndir amaethyddol a daw o Ddyfnaint. Astudiodd am radd mewn Gwyddor Anifeiliaid a PhD mewn Maetheg Anifeiliaid yn Leeds, yna symudodd i Nottingham i'r Ysgol Milfeddygaeth newydd i addysgu maetheg anifeiliaid. Mae ei ddiddordebau ymchwil yn bennaf mewn diagnosis a thrin diffyg mineralau mewn anifeiliaid sy'n cnoi cil ac mae'n rhedeg NUVetNA, labordy mineralau diagnostig.

From a farming background in Devon, Dr Nigel Kendall went on to study for a degree in Animal Science, a PhD in Animal Nutrition, both from Leeds, and then to the new Vet School in Nottingham to teach animal nutrition. His research interests are predominantly in the diagnosis and treatment of mineral deficiencies in ruminants. He also runs NUVetNA, a mineral diagnostic lab.